APPLICATION PROCESS

Applicants will be required to write an essay of between 500 and 1000 words on the following topic:

Examine and compare the relationship between immigrant workers and unions overall and within the construction industry, particularly the Carpenters union. How have these relationships changed over time, if at all?

Applicants may submit their completed application (application, essay, proof of enrollment, and transcript) via email to Janis Dwyer: jdwyer@nercc.org; or mailed to:

NERCC Scholarship, ATTN: Janis Dwyer, 750 Dorchester Ave., Boston, MA 02125. Applications must be received by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, April 14, 2018. Anything received after this time will not be accepted.

Note: Essays that do not meet the word count criteria will be disqualified. If you use outside references or sources please cite them.

To eliminate bias, the scholarship committee is blind to the identity of the applicant. Essays are numerically coded to prevent any reader from having knowledge of the writer. Winners of the top two prizes will be asked to read their essays at the June 2018 delegate meeting. Persons awarded first or second place in a prior year are ineligible for first or second place in subsequent years.
